

Desperate for a career as a dancer, actor or musical theatre performer?

Discover the best places to train, the qualifications you'll need and how to secure funding

Meet students from top training colleges in the world to find out about auditioning and studying

Watch current students from CDET Accredited Schools in a performance Showcase

Dance, Drama and Musical Theatre Careers Conference and Showcase Performance

Sunday 19 November 2017 • Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts (LIPA)

This unique, action-packed, one-day event is aimed at prospective students and their parents, and teachers seeking high-quality, relevant and up-to-date guidance about education, training, funding and career opportunities in the drama, dance and musical theatre industries.

99% of previous attendees said they would recommend the day to others

Dance, Drama and Musical Theatre Careers Conference

Sunday 19 November 2017 • 09.30 - 19.00
Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts (LIPA)

Every conference place includes a free ticket to the Showcase Performance which closes the day. This is a unique opportunity to enjoy a stunning and varied hour-long performance by current students of CDET Accredited Schools.

Student delegates participate in audition-style practical sessions and informative seminars related to either Dance, Drama/Acting or Musical Theatre, and meet with representatives from CDET Accredited Schools to explore options for professional training.

Parent delegates participate in seminars to unravel the mysteries of funding options, choosing a school, preparing for auditions and what happens after training. There are also opportunities to meet with senior representatives from CDET Accredited Schools who are on hand to answer burning questions.

NEW - Teachers' Forum An exclusive and exciting add-on for Dance, Drama and Musical Theatre Teachers and principals of performing arts pre-vocational schools. Provides information on how to get advice, guidance and training in safeguarding, marketing, social media, school management software and promoting your professional standards - all at significantly discounted rates.

Delegates will also visit the Marketplace of Accredited Schools and Awarding Organisations, and receive a free ticket to the Showcase Performance.

For further information and to book your place visit cdet.org.uk or email info@cdet.org.uk